

ALOHA LA'A KEA-2020 Savant Poetry Anthology
Edited by Uhene

(Sacred Light of Love)

This year's anthology came into being during challenging times, epitomized by the COVID-19 pandemic. People everywhere are being forced to rethink every aspect of society and their individual lives. Without the selfless, tireless assistance of Savant Books and Publications, this year's anthology might never have risen above the vicissitudes of the times. I also want to acknowledge the devoted assistance of the numerous native Hawaiian and religious poets who helped bring this "praise" work together as an egalitarian acclamation of life.
